

UKS2 Homework Grid Autumn Term 2018

Significant Authors—Michael Morpurgo

A quiz

Could you write quiz questions about each chapter of the book you have read together? How would you present it attractively? Where would the answers be?

A board game

Could you create a board game about your book? What would the rules be? Counters? Challenge cards? What is the aim of your game? How do you win?

Think how you would make it look good and be fun to play.

A map

Could you create a map of the significant places in your story? Make it look authentic.

You Must

- Read at home regularly to an adult
- Practise towards your next maths certificate

A story

Could you write one of the chapters from the point of view of one of the characters? Could you add your own chapter in? Could you write your own story set in the same place or with the same characters?

A model

How are your art and craft skills? Could you make a detailed and great looking model of a part of the story? Perhaps a setting or one of the characters. Write a description of what you have done.

A crossword

Could you create a crossword where the clues are all about the book you have been reading together?

Choose your own activity
