

Literacy:

Write a letter to Father Christmas. Your letter will need the following sections: Greeting, a reason for writing, a list of things you would like to have, questions to ask father Christmas, a closing phrase and your name.

RE:

Find out about The Christian Nativity Story. Retell the story in your own words or create a comic strip version of the story.

Could the children please send in their homework on Monday 16th December.

Numeracy:

Make a card or board game with a Christmas design or theme. Play the game with your family and talk about the maths involved in your game. ie counting, matching, adding. The game could be based on traditional games such as dominoes, matching lotto, snap or snakes and ladders.

Daily/regular homework tasks:

Work on rapid recall of number bonds/ facts up to 20 (addition and subtraction).

Learn time tables. Start with solving them and once confident move onto rapid recall of the facts.

Reading at home. Read with your child and talk about the text.

Work on reading and spelling numbers to twenty, days of the week and months of the year.

Work on reading and spelling the Common Exception Words.

Work on reading the words in the Sight Word Book.

Book reviews.

Autumn 2 2019.

Weather & Christmas Homework KS1 (Year 1 & Year 2).

Science:

Go on a walk with your parents and look out for animals. List all those that you spot under the headings: Carnivores, omnivores and herbivores.

Geography:

Watch a weather report on TV. Create your own weather map and symbols. Make up weather reports for the local weather and write these down. Use descriptive language.

Art:

Create a Nativity scene painting or drawing. Look on the internet to see how famous artists have shown that Jesus is special to Christians. Can you use your paints or pencils to create a glow around the baby Jesus?

Design Technology:

Take part in Mrs Nunn's DT competition. Write a recipe for a Christmas dessert that could be used for the school Christmas dinner dessert. Cakes, biscuits or chilled desserts would be tasty.

Entries for this competition is 50p and entries need to be sent into school by Friday 22nd November. This competition is open to foundation, KS1 and KS2. A prize will be given to the winning entry.
